

Ms Lynn Yap Bee Ching is a Senior Radiographer of the Diagnostic Radiology Department at Singapore General Hospital (SGH). Lynn is a graduate of Charles Sturt University, where she received a Bachelor of Medical Radiation Science (Medical Imaging).

Since graduation, Lynn has begun her specialization in mammography, leading her to work in different hospitals of varying patient demographics. Throughout her career, Lynn has worked in many of Singapore's well established institutes including Tan Tock Seng Hospital, KK Women's and Children's Hospital, Thomson Medical Centre and currently, Singapore General Hospital. Her passion in women's care has led her to expand her skill set by learning ultrasonography in breast and gynaecology. She was awarded Singapore Health Quality Service Award (Silver Award) in 2012-2013 for her high-quality patient care.

Now as Senior Radiographer at SGH, she teaches graduate and new entry radiographers to foster the same enthusiasm and passion for General Radiography
